General users are granted beamtime at the ALS through a peer-review proposal process, which occurs twice a year. Typically, proposals are due in mid-January for beamtime awarded in July - December and in mid-July for beamtime awarded in January - June of the following year. The next proposal deadline is listed on the right, and more information can be obtained on the ALS website
.